This process was fair to all parties.
This process allowed all to be heard.
Communication between the parties was improved.
Parties came away with a better understanding of the case.
This process offered a safe setting.
I did not feel unduly pressured by the neutral to reach an agreement.
The neutral understood the issues.
ADR process occurred at about the right time in the litigation process.
The ADR process occurred too early.
The neutral skillfully structured the process.
I was satisfied with the outcome.
I would recommend or use the neutral again.

This section to be completed by Self-Represented Litigants only.

I decided to represent myself because: (Check all that apply.)

- I did not have funds to hire an attorney.
  I could pay, but no one would take my case.
 I could not find an attorney who would take the case at a reduced fee or pro bono.
 Cost was not a factor.
  I did not think that I needed an attorney.

Please provide any additional feedback, including but not limited to: timing of the process, appropriateness of the process used, skills and abilities of the neutral, what was most helpful during the process, what might be done differently, the facility where session was held, etc.
