WILLIAMS, ET AL. v. CARMAX AUTO SUPERSTORES CAL., LLC, ET AL.
Case No. FCS045277

Motion to Compel Further Responses to Discovery

TENTATIVE RULING

Defendant's motions to compel further responses to its Special Interrogatories, Set Two, and its Requests for Production of Documents, Set Three, are granted. Plaintiff's objections are not meritorious. (Code Civ. Proc. §§ 2030.300(a)(3), 2031.310(a)(3).) To the extent that Plaintiff claims that the discovery is duplicative, she has not demonstrated that providing substantive responses would be unjust or inequitable. (See, Coy v. Superior Court (1962) 58 Cal.2d 210, 218.)

Plaintiff shall serve verified further responses within 20 days of service of this order, unless the parties agree to an extension. Defendant is awarded monetary sanctions in the amount of $1,120 from Plaintiff and Plaintiff's counsel, jointly or severally, for $1,000 in reasonable attorneys' fees and $120 in costs incurred through and including the posting of this Tentative Ruling, payable within 20 days of service of this order. Based on the responses consisting solely of objections and Defendant's meet and confer declaration, the Court is satisfied that Plaintiff's counsel advised the sanctionable conduct.
