---	-------------------------------

8. DUTIES OF COUNSEL FOR A CHILD

- a. Counsel for a child must:
 - (1) Represent the child's best interests.
 - (2) Gather evidence that bears on the best interest of the child and present that admissible evidence to the court in any manner appropriate for the counsel of a party.
 - (3) Present the child's wishes to the court if the child so desires.
 - (4) Serve notices and pleadings on all parties consistent with rules and laws applicable to parties.
 - (5) Unless under the circumstances it is inappropriate to exercise the duty:
 - (a) Interview the child;
 - (b) Review the court files and all accessible relevant records available to both parties; and
 - (c) Make any further investigations child's counsel considers necessary to ascertain evidence relevant to the custody or visitation hearings.
 - (6) If so informed by the child at any point, provide notice that the child:
 - (a) Wishes to address the court; or
 - (b) Has changed their choice about addressing the court.
 - (7) Provide the notice in (6) as soon as feasible to the parties or their attorneys, other professionals serving on the case, and then to the judicial officer.
- b. Counsel may introduce and examine witnesses, present arguments to the court concerning the child's welfare, and participate further in the proceeding to the degree necessary to represent the child adequately.

9. COUNSEL FOR A CHILD HAS THE FOLLOWING RIGHTS:

- a. To have reasonable access to the child;
- b. To have standing to seek affirmative relief on behalf of the child;
- c. To receive notice of any proceeding, and all phases of that proceeding, including a request for examination affecting the child;
- d. To be heard in the proceeding and take any action available to a party in the proceeding;
- e. To have access to the child's medical, dental, mental health, and other health-care records;
- f. To have access to the child's school and educational records;
- g. To interview school personnel, caretakers, health-care providers, mental health professionals, and others who have assessed the child or provided care to the child;
- h. To interview mediators subject to the provisions of Family Code sections 3177 and 3182;
- i. To assert or waive any privilege on behalf of the child;
- j. To receive reasonable advance notice of and the right to refuse any physical or psychological examination or evaluation that has not been ordered by the court;
- k. On approval of the court, to seek independent psychological or physical examination or evaluation of the child for purposes of the pending proceeding;
- l. On noticed motion to all parties and the local child protective services agency, to request the court to authorize the relevant local child protective services agency to release relevant reports or files concerning the child represented by the counsel as provided by Family Code section 3152; and
- m. Not to be called as a witness in the proceeding. (Family Code section 3151(b)).

THE COURT SO ORDERS.

Date: 12/30/25

JUDICIAL OFFICER

NOTICE

Any party required to pay court-ordered attorney fees or reimburse the court for attorney fees paid on a party's behalf must pay interest on overdue amounts at the legal rate, which is currently 10 percent per year. Failure to pay court-ordered attorney fees or reimburse the court for fees paid on a party's behalf may result in a legal action being initiated to collect overdue payments and interest on overdue amounts.
