By

DEPUTY CLERK

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF SOLANO

*****

STANDING ORDER NO.: MISC-6-2020

STANDING ORDER RE: COVID-19
CRIMINAL CASES

Due to COVID-19 and reduced court operations, the court will reschedule time waived matters set April 6, 2020, until further notice from the court. All time waived felony and misdemeanor arraignments, hearings and court appearances in both Vallejo and Fairfield Courthouses are continued 8 weeks from their current date unless you have been otherwise notified.

A notice of continued hearings will be prepared and posted daily on the court's website for each Criminal Department. This notice will outline the case name, case number, event type, and continuance date.

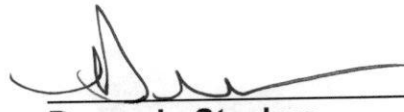

All notices will be available after 11:00 a.m. on the court day preceding the scheduled hearing. To view this notice, sign on to the court's website at www.solano.courts.ca.gov and select the link for Continued Hearings in the 1 Announcements section.

2 The posted notice will serve as notice to all parties with the exception of
3 unrepresented individuals. Any person who is not represented by counsel will receive
4 a notice to appear from the court through the U.S. mail service. Defense counsel is
5 responsible for noticing clients.

6 All notices will be removed from the court's website at the end of each
7 business day and made available on an archive page which can be found at 8 www.solano.courts.ca.gov/ContinuedHearings/default.html.
