SUSAN A. RADOS APPOINTED COMMISSIONER

Fairfield, California – Wendy G. Getty, the Presiding Judge for the Superior Court of California, County of Solano, is pleased to announce the appointment of Susan A. Rados to the position of Court Commissioner. “Commissioner Rados is an accomplished judicial officer. Her experience, legal knowledge and work ethic will be an asset to our bench and the Solano County community.”

Ms. Rados is currently a Court Commissioner for the Superior Court of Lassen County. Prior to becoming a Court Commissioner, Ms. Rados served in the Lassen County District Attorney’s Office for over a year and the Solano County District Attorney’s Office for seven years, which included handling complex cases in the Major Crimes Unit and the Special Teams Unit.

Ms. Rados earned a bachelor’s and master’s degree in Broadcast and Electronic Communication Arts from San Francisco State University. She earned her Juris Doctorate from Golden Gate University Law School. Ms. Rados has also taught Video Production, Editing, Directing and Media Aesthetics at San Francisco State University.

Ms. Rados is an avid athlete, and has competed in a number of marathons, including several Ironman competitions. She began training in taekwondo at age 31 and earned her black belt at age 36. Ms. Rados currently competes in body building competitions, and is on her way to earning her pro card as a physique athlete.

Upon appointment, Ms. Rados stated, “I am honored and humbled to have the opportunity to serve the Court and the people of Solano County as a court commissioner. It truly feels like a bit of a homecoming. I started my career serving the people of Solano County as a prosecutor in the District Attorney’s office for seven years before moving to Susanville in 2020. I continued as a prosecutor for another year and a half before I was appointed to serve as a court commissioner in the Superior Court in Lassen County. I am excited to bring my experience home and hope to continue to ensure fair and impartial justice to the people of Solano County.”

Ms. Rados fills the vacancy created by Commissioner Robert Warshawsky’s retirement. She commences her duties on March 20, 2023.
