Solano County Superior Courts

The Superior Court of California, County of Solano is the unified trial court of both general and limited jurisdiction in the county. Comprised of 23 judicial officers (20 judges and 3 commissioners) with a staff of 196, the court has jurisdiction over all cases arising within the county. This includes felony and misdemeanor criminal cases, traffic, civil and small claims, family law, probate, and juvenile cases. The court operates four court facilities within the county including: The Hall of Justice at 600 Union Ave. in Fairfield, the Law and Justice Center at 530 Union Ave. Fairfield, the Old Solano Courthouse at 580 Texas Street in Fairfield, and the Solano Justice Building at 321 Tuolumne St., Vallejo.

About Solano Mobility

In February 2014, the Solano Transportation Authority (STA) expanded their services to include the Solano Mobility Call Center. This was one of four Solano Mobility priorities identified in the Solano Transportation Study for Seniors and People with Disabilities, which was completed in 2011. As well as providing commuters and Solano County employers with information on a variety of transit services and incentive programs, the Solano Mobility Call Center provides seniors and people with disabilities with a range of mobility information.

Solano Mobility Call Center

The Solano Mobility Call Center offers personalized assistance for a variety of mobility services and programs such as bus, rail, ferry, shared ride, taxis, paratransit, bike information, and mobility programs for older adults, people with disabilities, employers, and commuters.

Travel Training Program

Free and fun service that teaches Solano County residents how to ride public transportation to maintain their independence. For more information on Travel Training, call the Solano Mobility Call Center at 1-800-535-6883

EQUITABLE ACCESS TO JUSTICE PILOT PROGRAM

Providing jurors and specialty court participants with transportation options for court-related travel within Solano County and increasing access to justice for all.

"The Equitable Access to Justice pilot project is the first of its kind in California. Our goal is to remove barriers for citizens in our community to participate in jury service based on lack of access to transportation."

- Wendy G. Getty, the Presiding Judge for the Solano County Superior Court

About The Pilot Program

The Equitable Access to Justice Pilot Program was started in June 2023 by the Solano County Superior Courts in partnership with the Solano Transportation Authority (STA) to help jurors, prospective jurors, specialty court participants, and collaborative court participants who do not have access to transportation or cannot afford transportation by providing them with fully funded transportation subsidies for court-related travel within Solano County. The goal is to eliminate transportation obstacles as a barrier to court participation. Please notify the court if you need transportation for your court appointment.

The courthouses are open from 8:00 AM – 5:00 PM. The Clerk’s Offices are open by drop-in 8:00 AM – 11:30 AM or by appointment 8:00 AM – 3:00 PM. For more information on the Solano County Superior Courts, visit:

<https://solano.courts.ca.gov/>

Funding is provided by Solano County Transportation Development Act (TDA) funds and Solano County Superior Courts grants.

For Jurors/Prospective Jurors

You can use the Equitable Access to Justice Pilot Program to travel roundtrip from your Solano County home to the Solano County Superior Court in Fairfield at 600 Union Avenue from Monday – Friday between 7 AM and 7 PM or the Solano County Superior Court in Vallejo at 321 Tuolumne Street from Monday – Friday between 7 AM and 7 PM.

All rides are 100% subsidized.

There are two options for receiving transportation:

1. Court participants who have a smart phone and can use the Uber app will be issued a 100% subsidized Uber Voucher that will appear in the wallet of their Uber app.
2. Court participants who do not have a smart phone or who cannot use the Uber app will have a 100% subsidized Uber or Lyft ride provided for them.

Please notify the court if you need transportation and let them know which option will be best for you.

If you are a prospective juror and need assistance with transportation, please contact Jury Services by telephone at (707) 207-7350 or by email at courtjury@solano.courts.ca.gov
